Deposit Information

In order to RESERVE a puppy, you are required to submit a non-refundable deposit of $250.00.

By non-refundable, your deposit will be forfeited if you cancel your puppy request. However, the deposit may be transferred to another litter, so long as the selection is made within one calendar year. The deposit is refundable IF your application is declined, by Rosewood kennel, for any reason, or if a puppy (of the same quality and breed for which you made application) is available within one calendar year.

Once a puppy is reserved from a particular litter, you may not change to another litter, without expressed permission of the Breeder, and/or only if there is availability on the litter requested. If permission is granted you may only make this request one time.

Discussions with Rosewood Kennel regarding a particular puppy does not reserve that puppy for you and he/she may be placed at any time unless you have made a deposit.

We will do our best to accommodate your personal selection desires and circumstances. But we do not promise a certain gender, coat color or type. Often people are surprised, for example, to discover that male dogs are very loving and gentle, without aggression so we ask you to keep an open mind/heart when puppies are available.

Contract explained

You will be required to sign a contract agreeing, among other things, that you will have the puppy spayed/neutered and that you will return the puppy to the breeder if you cannot keep him/her (at OUR discretion). And that ownership of the puppy will not pass until the contract is signed by both parties and the puppy is delivered to the buyer.

By making this application to buy a Rosewood Kennel puppy, you understand that there is no guarantee Or promise that the puppy will be non-shedding and/or hypo-allergenic. Of course, that is our desire and we try to breed for this quality. F1B puppies, and higher generations, generally have a very good quality non-shedding/low shedding coat quality, but there is always a possibility that a dog may shed, and in fact all puppies will blow their puppy coats during their first year.

Sometimes a person is allergic to the dog's saliva or to some environmental trigger, if so; allergies may still be triggered by a Goldendoodle.

Every Rosewood Kennel puppy MUST be spayed/neutered by the age of 5 months. NO breeding rights are granted between the parties.

If, at any time during the first year, or for any reason, you decide that this puppy is not right for you or your family, we require that you contact Rosewood Kennel.

Warranties

Rosewood Kennel puppies come with a short-term health warranty and a two-year genetic health warranty.

Thank you for your interest in our puppies. We work very hard to see that owning a Rosewood kennel puppy is a happy and rewarding experience for you and your family.

Completion of this form does not obligate you to purchase a puppy nor does it assure you that a puppy will be available at any given time. This is not a contract.

A non-refundable deposit of $250.00 is required to reserve a puppy for you. Any puppy, even the puppy you are interested in, may be placed at any time unless you made a deposit. You may elect to send a deposit with your application, after your application has been approved, or once a pregnancy has been confirmed. Please be aware that no puppy will be reserved until the deposit is received. Our puppies are placed according to their temperament assessments for each individual family. However, if more than one family wants the same puppy based on their look, color, etc. we will then look at the date of the application and when the deposit was received to determine who receives the puppy.

We place puppies based on matching with the family; often, when people are set on certain gender, color, size or coat type, they overlook the personality and temperament of the dog. We take pride in matching the right puppy to your family. We ask that you complete this application fully. We will then watch each puppy for the puppy that best suits your situation. We will ask for your first, second and third choice and then we watch as they develop to see which puppy best fits your stated needs/desires.

When you are more flexible, you ensure that the earliest possible qualified puppy will be available to you. If you request certain colors, coat type, size or gender, your request may restrict your choices considerably.

If you have a strong preference for selecting your own puppy we will arrange a visit at 6 weeks old to allow you to do so. However, spending an hour with a room of excited puppies may not provide the best way to select a puppy for your family. We spend hours interacting with them and know them inside and out by the time we make the selections. What we might suggest is letting you come and spend time with them, and once you make your decision, we will tell you our thoughts.

Please understand that, with Goldendoodles, there is NO difference in temperament between male and female puppies. When you have your puppy neutered before he/she reaches maturity (which is required) then they do not learn the negative behaviors related to gender. You can expect our dogs to be good family pets, SO LONG AS you do your part. If you do not regularly train, protect or socialize your puppy, you WILL encounter behavioral problems. Doodles are extremely smart and eager to please. You must teach them what is required by giving them constant supervision and positive reinforcement training in order for them to become the pet that you want and that they are prepared to be.

Please complete each question. If one does not apply, please indicate why. The more information you give, the better we will know if a Rosewood Kennel puppy is for you!
